

As a licensed Amateur radio operator, I fully support this petition. I think that this proposal is the correct direction for the Amateur Radio community.

We need more operators. When kids have a choice between using the Internet or being required to learn Morse code to use a radio, the choice is easy for them. Many excellent operators are being turned away because of the Morse Code requirement.

Chris Southern
W1CWS